You wouldn't take a taxi You said you couldn't stay You drink and drink and drive Almost every day Your life speeds through your mind Faster than you drive Living on a shoestring All your fucking life Your friends say you need help You tell them that you're fine As you tip the bottle And swallow some cheap wine You're a living time bomb Waiting to explode You'll just be a statistic When you're dead and cold!

Every time you drink and drive
You always think that you'll survive
Till your car is crushed and bent
Impact is imminent
Sirens fill the streets aloud
It always draws the biggest crowd
They peel your body off cement
Impact is imminent!

The daily obituaries reveal

More and more fools climbed behind the wheel

Thinking they were sober enough to drive

They didn't know they'd never come back alive

A bad case of double vision

Led straight onto a head-on collision

Passed out and crossed the double line

How can anyone be so asinine?

Blind drunk and hauling ass
He got airborne off an overpass
He never knew he left the ground
Like a warhead target bound
You can't correct your fatal mistake
When you're the guest of honor at your own wake
Thought he could fly till he hit cement
Impact is imminent!

Drunken time bombs set to detonate
When happy hour's over they're off to celebrate
Their vision's but a blur, they barely see the road
Been drinking for so long they're starting to erode
A fucking drunken lush climbs into his car
Kills you in an instant coming from the bar
An alcoholic bum hits you from behind
A child and his mother run down in their prime!
