

Break The Silence

Exotype

This is the day everything will change.
I'm gonna take back what you've taken from me,
And just let me be me.

You have burned every ounce of trust,
Now there is no us left for me to believe.
So I believe in me.

This is my time to rise and break the silence
(Paving the way for change)
Only I have the power to stop the cycle,
The world is just a breath away.

I know now that I need to find myself a way,
Find myself a way out.
And if I don't then we both know this will happen again and again.
I know now that I need to find myself a way,
Find myself a way out.
And if I don't then we both know this will happen again and again.
This will happen again.

You told me everything would be okay,
It's just a bruise, a little bump,
And no one cares anyway.
No one can hear me scream.

This is my time to rise and break the silence
(Paving the way for change)
Only I have the power to stop this cycle.
The world is just a breath away.

I know now that I need to find myself a way,
Find myself a way out.
And if I don't then we both know this will happen again and again.
I know now that I need to find myself a way,
Find myself a way out.
And if I don't then we both know this will happen again and again.
This will happen again.

The walls are drawing closer.
(Too close is too close, you're too close.)
I'm slipping away from myself
I'm drowning in doubt.
There's no more you and I
The hands of the clock have stopped at zero.
It's time to wake up.
It's time to wake up.
It's time to wake up.

I know now that I need to find myself a way,
Find myself a way out.
And if I don't then we both know this will happen again and again.
I know now that I need to find myself a way,
Find myself a way out.
And if I don't then we both know this will happen again and again.
This will happen again.
