

Illuminate

Exotype

Give me sight beyond sight.
I'll make the world regret what it's hiding.
Give me sight beyond sight.
Let's shake the earth with the depth of our findings.

Illuminate this fate, displaced.
I'm counting the days until
It is taken all away.
I make an escape, and find I'm always running fast in place.
I build and create and then
I'm vanishing without a trace.

I'm always seeking answers.
Hidden within myself.
I am my own disaster,
And it's all so perfect now.

Give me sight beyond sight.
I'll make the world regret what it's hiding.
Give me sight beyond sight.
Let's shake the earth with the depth of our findings.

Rejuvenate and lie in wait,
I'm building a case and it's
A miracle I got my way.
My thoughts are encased and I won't subscribe to that cliché
I kill and erase and then
I fabricate my own escape.

I'm always seeking answers.
Hidden within myself,
I am my own disaster,
And it's all so perfect now.

Give me sight beyond sight.
I'll make the world regret what it's hiding
Give me sight beyond sight.
Let's shake the earth with the depth of our findings.
As above, so below.
Let's heat it up and let the whole world know.
As above, so below.
Let's heat it up and let the whole world know.
