

Bark

Expire

I'll never let you tie me down to be a dog just barking on a chain Jerk me back to reality whenever I dare to dream
So let me curl my lips
Let me howl at the moon
Been looking down on me long enough but my day's coming soon
No thanks to you
You can follow me through open doors or you can wish me the best I refuse to follow you under You've been a weight on my chest and when there's nothing left to say I ask you kindly relocate
You're in my fucking way
