Exposed to Love

Exposé

Changing stages to the love and games
Silent whispers in the falling rain
It took your heart to expose me to love
There's a look in your eyes
(There's a look in your eyes)
And in your smile even just for a while
In the still of the night
(In the still of the night)
I've got to show you, baby, how I feel, oh
(Oh)
And melt you with my love
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love
Hear my echoes, they are not in vain
Listen to me before I go insane
You found a way into my open arms
Like the stars heart to heart
(Like the stars heart to heart)
Is there a way for me to sing you this song
In the heat of the night?
(In the heat of the night)
I've got to show you, baby, how I feel, oh
(Oh)
And melt you with my love
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
Exposed to love
I've got to show you, honey, how I feel, oh
(Oh)
And, boy, I'll melt you with my love
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
Exposed to love
Ohh, ohh
Never felt like this love, never felt like this love
Never felt like this love, never felt like this love
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
Exposed to love, ohh ohh
Never felt like this love, ohh ohh
