

How could we've known?
That this insanity would take it's hold so easily
Now that we know the resistance lies among us
It was not long ago
It was not long ago
that we would rise and face the ones that we've known To hide behind their justice

You think we're just idiots
I'm so sick of it
You're pathetic, condesending tone
You think we're just idiots
I'm so sick of it
Why don't you leave us alone

The curtains draw close Our freedoms lost they're killing us behind the scenes They tighten their hold in defense of the resistance
it was not long ago
it was not long ago
that we unify our prescence was known still they rape the halls of justice

You think we're just idiots
I'm so sick of it
You're pathetic, condesending tone
You think we're just idiots
I'm so sick of it
Why don't you leave us alone

Rise and believe this Now's our time
You better believe this
We won't be defeated

You think we're just idiots
I'm so sick of it
You're pathetic, condesending tone
You think we're just idiots
I'm so sick of it
Why don't you leave us alone
