

Last One Home

Eye Empire

This life's come undone
Built my world to only know goodbye
It's getting closer It's hitting home everyday of my life
Is one more closer to the end
The end

Cause I see Heaven every time I'm a sinner
And you see Hell in my eyes
Know we'll all find something when we see the end coming
So go on and take the last train
Cause I'll be the last one home

Nothing left to say it's too late to look back or turn around suddenly the past has broken down everyday of our lives
is one more closer to the end
The end

Cause I see Heaven every time I'm a sinner
And you see Hell in my eyes
Know we'll all find something when we see the end coming
So go on
and take the last train
Cause I'll be the last one home
