

More Than Fate

Eye Empire

We begin with such miracles.
In time we all face failure.
Fighting through it all.
The faith was lost and splintered now.
You gave up somewhere along the way.

Can we say,
we believe in something more than fate?
'Cause the game, the one we play,
kills everything.

We begin to live again,
and reverse our fortune.
Seeing through it all.
The faith was lost and splintered now.
You gave up somewhere along the way,
today.

Can we say,
we believe in something more than fate?
'Cause the game, the one we play,
kills everything.

Can we say,
we believe in something more than fate?
'Cause the game, the one we play
kills everything.

Can we say,
we believe in something more than fate?
'Cause the game, the one we play,
kills everything.
