

Self Destructive

Eye Empire

I realize that my demise is clearly tied to the choice that are made today
Think twice and analyze
That path outside is leading you the wrong way
Is leading me the wrong way

Why am I so destructive?
My conscience calls me out
I am so self destructive
My conscience calls me
Conscience calls me out

Look in and being to see the trend this pattern of behavior that kills what is right in our lives destroying what is scared destroying what is sacred

Why am I so destructive?
My conscience calls me out
I am so self destructive

My conscience calls me
Conscience calls me out

(I need to take control)
(I need to let it go)

Why do I put you through this?
My mind is rendered useless
Will all this end in tragedy?

Self Destructive
I'm so destructive
I'm self destructive

Why am I so destructive?
I'm self destructive
I'm so destructive

Why am I so destructive?
My conscience calls me out
I am so self destructive
My conscience calls me
Conscience calls me out

Calls me out
