

The War Isn't Over Yet

Eye Empire

Fighting for my life
I return unrecognized
My worldly view has changed
There are scars upon my brain
Insane

War
Took a warm heart
Left a cold one
(Truth told the war isn't over yet)
War
Took a warm heart
Left a cold one
(Truth told the war isn't over yet)
It's just begun

Dreams of suicide
Thinking it could free my mind
I wish I could erase
The memories of the death I taste
I'm changed

War
Took a warm heart
Left a cold one
(Truth told the war isn't over yet)
War
Took a warm heart
Left a cold one
(Truth told the war isn't over yet)
It's just begun

War
Took a warm heart
Left a cold one
(Truth told the war isn't over yet)
War
Took a warm heart
Left a cold one
(Truth told the war isn't over yet)
It's just begun
