

There comes a time
When everyone must
Fight for what they love
There comes a time
When everyone must
Reach to lift us up

Will you take my hand
Look within and help is breath again
Help us see again

Within we have the power
If you believe
Within we are the power
If you believe

Come and stand with me

There comes a time
When patience runs thin
And you've had enough
There comes a time
When everyone has thought
Of giving up

You are more than man
Look within
And help us breathe again
Help us see again

Within we have the power
If you believe
Within we are the power
If you believe

Come and stand with me

Within we have the power
If you believe
Within we are the power
If you believe

Come and stand with me
