

The Hollow

Eyes Set to Kill

I crave the day this curse releases me of all my rage
I seek a remedy
The night is young, but I've become a prisoner in this story
I want to live
Or is love just an empty dream?

Running towards a light, chasing so quickly, changing with the
night
Behind the city wall, the hollow holds him down

I'm on the hunt
No one is safe to walk these streets
Out for blood, let them come
Make a monster out of me

I can't escape the monster that they see
I will remain until the day I meet the girl with eyes who sees behind what they try fooling her to see
But is she real?
Or is love just an empty dream?

Running towards a light, chasing so quickly, changing with the
night
Behind the city wall, the hollow holds him down

I'm on the hunt
No one is safe to walk these streets
Out for blood, let them come
Make a monster out of me

She'll burn the hollow
She'll spread the secrecy
She'll tell the story of the villain that they see(4x)

Or is love just an empty dream?
Running towards a light, chasing so quickly, changing with the
night
Behind the city wall, the hollow holds him down
