The Pit and the Poser

Stand in the back, you try to look cool Reality check! You look like a fool You try to hide but we'll seek you out And teach you what thrashing's all about

You're not the first, we know your kind We'll penetrate your unwilling mind Become a moshoholic, no use to refuse There's no excuse

And now it's up to you Beaten bloody, black and blue Nothing left for you to prove Except your ability to move

The pit the poser
The poser and the pit
Do dare come closer
You know you want to, just admit it!

The pit the poser
The poser and the pit
Do dare come closer
Even if you get hit, there's no way we'll let you quit!

We know you wanna, time to realize You've got it in you, we see it in your eyes Time to make a choice and stop pretending Because this shit is never-ending

Once you're addicted there's no way out Four finger salute! You scream and shout When the horror and the metal takes control The evil ünderwear has taken its toll

And now it's up to you Beaten bloody, black and blue Nothing left for you to prove Except your ability to move

The pit the poser
The poser and the pit
Do dare come closer
You know you want to, just admit it!

The pit the poser
The poser and the pit
Do dare come closer
Even if you get hit, there's no way we'll let you quit!

We know what thrashing's all about You push and shove and we scream and shout! Moshoholics, we must stand as one

The pit the poser

The poser and the pit
Do dare come closer
You know you want to, just admit it!

The pit the poser
The poser and the pit
Do dare come closer
Even if you get hit, there's no way we'll let you quit!

The pit the poser
The poser and the pit
Do dare come closer
You know you want to, just admit it!

The pit the poser
The poser and the pit
Do dare come closer
Even if you get hit, there's no way we'll let you quit!
