

Voices In Mind

F.O.B.

Day by day, night by night
I'm living as a sailor, who never die Change by chance, I'm so strong Don't believe in evil, which is all surround

Ref: Give me the key of the last chamber chamber of knowledge of victory and death of sucking love and hate

I don't want, to save my soul
And stop to be sinner, let myself go

I just want to live alone
Live my curset life, let problems go
So i killed this boy, for my joy
For my fucking glory, let myself go.
