Whiteness

F.O.B.

I saw only whiteness
with dazzle light
I tried to open my eyes success one half
get out of bed
look around the room
unknown white walls
locked door
hardly opened them
white walls too
just one black figure
I can not reach
I run till downstairs
but suddenly its twice I start to be scared
and run before them back remains only whiteness
but they don't care about me instead of this taking every things out of the house, of my life
remains only whiteness
