Said goodbye when I left To your answering machine Then you jumped in a plane Girl, you know what I mean

Pick up the phone, oh yeah Pick up the phone, oh please I need your voice again Hearing your voice again

Waiting so many years
Feeling closer to you
Not a sign, not a trace
Baby, what can I do?
Pick up the phone, oh yeah
Pick up the phone, oh please
I need your voice again
Hearing your voice again

Pick me the phone
Let me know
I don't want to lose you, girl
Don't hang up, get in touch
Fill the shadow in my life
What you're doing to me now

Intercommunication via satellite You can call me long distance Whatever you like Pick up the phone, oh yeah Pick up the phone, oh please I need your voice again Hearing your voice again

Pick me the phone
Let me know
I don't want to lose you, girl
Fill the shadow in my life
What you're doing to me now

What you're doing to me now Can't we straight in it out? Won't you speak your heart What you're doing to me now Can't we straight in it out? Won't you speak your heart
