

Heavenly

Fabrizio Faniello

A sample thought, comes to my mind,
It's back in me to find the way,
To let her know the way I feel,
The truth is all I have to say,
If this world reflect the feelings in my heart,
Is not right to keep to love as far apart.

RIT: She's heavenly to me,
All the world can see,
That a tender love for me is pure and divine,
A lovers' fantasy, she's my destiny,
On the ocean wide and free will sail,
To one eternity.

Come rain no shine, through darkest sky,
I will be here I won't let go,
A shining light, a brand new day,
Will give me hope and love will grow.
Never thought I could find happiness to share,
Waiting all my life for someone who will care.

RIT: She's heavenly to me,
All the world can see,
That a tender love for me is pure and divine,
A lovers' fantasy, she's my destiny,
On the ocean wide and free will sail,
Through one eternity... X2
