

Nothing Succeeds Like Success

Face to Face

My friends are so wrong
They think they know it all
But I know what they're thinking
That I won't make it all of the way
And I won't remember them it's OK
Because I'm going to prove them wrong

Fresh-faced you're the new sensation
Are you happy now?
The voice of a new generation
Congratulations

My friends were so wrong
But I have new friends now
It didn't take me too long
To climb my way up here it's OK
Everyone is showing me the way
They tell me to enjoy my stay

Seemed like just yesterday you didn't have a clue
I never thought that this would happen to you
