

Tell me something that I don't already know
Tell me how you plan to change the world
I'm tired of people trying to tell me what is right
I'm tired of people trying to pull me down

I know that you might never understand the way I feel
I made a promise to myself that I would never let it show

Never look down
Never look down
Just keep my focus straight ahead
And try to walk this line

Tell me all about your favorite human being
Tell me everything about yourself
God, the story is so terribly interesting
I wonder what's so good about myself

I know that you might never understand the way I feel
I made a promise to myself that I would never let it show

Never look down
Never look down
Just keep my focus straight ahead
And try to walk this line

So let me take a good look at your perfect life
So I know just exactly how I don't want mine

Everyday I see these Same four walls that keep me here
And I want to change the things that hurt
I want to end this constant fear
