What's In A Name

Face to Face

open-minded educated popular and medicated now and you still wo n't make it filled with silent indignation blind with hopeless expectation now and you still won't make it so you're afraid th at they will think ill of you get a load of me now and if you'r e scared they couldn't care less of you get over yourself now i t's fame and popularity i'll never understand if it feels like this is what you need you'll never understand innocence and inn uendo confidence and acquiescence now and you still won't make it self-consciousness is not a virtue everyone is looking at yo u now you may never make it