

Behind A Smile

Fact

A knock on my door disturbs my dream
I'm confused by your sudden farewell
The bonds between us are broken
It's happened suddenly
Nothing left for me

There are a thousand things I need to tell you
And all regrets in mind

We went through some hard times together
But now is the time to say goodbye

I know what happened and I can't take it
Telling myself there is nothing I can do
But I don't wanna say goodbye
I turn my eyes to you with a fake smile

I always promised to come back here
Although I never wanted to go back
I don't think I can hurt for so long
It's happened suddenly

I know what happened and I can't take it
Telling myself there is nothing I can do
But I don't wanna say goodbye
I turn my eyes to you with a fake smile

We are set free
Destined to go separate ways
We've already gone too far
I smell your perfume now everywhere I go

I know what happened and I can't take it
Telling myself there is nothing I can do
But I don't wanna say goodbye
I turn my eyes to you with a fake smile
