

Are you sure you're taking to the one you think you are?
Now I can't get this thing out of my head conversation,
I hear it from 3 blocks away
From your mouth the poison running down into a glass
in front of someone that's unnoticed by you
I translate the words you say but they mean nothing
Cover your eyes for half a second then look at me
Glance around the room I stand in front of you and look at me

You don't even try to
I attempt to

Off your face, what is left over you must wipe away

Cos I don't wanna see it any more
And either way you cannot even go outside
From your mouth the poison running down into a glass
in front of someone that's unnoticed by you
I translate the words you say but they mean nothing

You don't even try to
I attempt to
You have to realize
I attempt to

Tell all who believe
That you made this picture
Tell all who believe
But I'll keep her safe for sure

(You don't even try to)
I attempt to
