

This Is The End

Fact

Everything will change
So taste a little violence
A harsh reality repeats itself
Swallowed by the waves of desire, there is no way out
Someone said "This is the end."
Surely this may be the end.
But who would give up all their hopes at this time?

Calm down now and close your eyes
Why can't you see beyond their lies?
The cold wind touches my face

Everything in flames
Burning in the fire
I've lost my sanity inside the chains
Swallowed by the waves of desire, there is no way out
Someone said "This is the end."
Surely this may be the end.
But who would give up all their hopes at this time?

Calm down now and close your eyes
Why can't you see beyond their lies?
The cold wind touches my face
My burning heart is frozen by the cold
