

In The End

Fade

There comes a point
Where everybody
Gets tested by their
Fate in reality
One chance one time
Can't let this go
I've been waiting
For far too long

Before this becomes an illusion
I have to make it through

Safe to say, I'm here to stay
With one thing in my mind
I can't go back
This is my time
In the end I will be standing

Make or break
I'm fully awake now
Won't let nobody
Defy who I am
Constant bullshit
So shut the fuck up
You're not worthy
Enough to confront me

It's up to myself to determine
If I can make it through

Safe to say
I'm here to stay
With one thing in my mind
I can't go back
This is my time
In the end I will be standing

I've overpaid my dues
Listened to different views
Come what may out tha blue
To myself I'll stay true
I won't be played by this
So called "game" in the abyss
I will send you deep into the oblivion
