

Kings Of Dawn

Fade

Another day is about to end
In silence and remorse again
And the world pays no attention
And we know how reality
Can come at you with brutality
But we won't stand down

We will make it right
Then I'll sing tonight
To the kings of dawn
Make our voices be heard
Raise your glasses high
Drink to the sky tonight
And believe that one day
Our time will come

If everything was meant to be
Is that the only way
No matter how hard you try to strive
Trying to justify the certainty
Makes me deal with everything
That I can't take no more

We will make it right
Then I'll sing tonight
To the kings of dawn
Make our voices be heard
Raise your glasses high
Drink to the sky tonight
And believe that one day
Our time will come

We will make it right
When I'll sing tonight
To the kings of dawn
Make our voices be heard
Raise your glasses high
And believe that one day
Our time will come

We will make it right
And I'll sing tonight
To the kings of dawn
Make our voices be heard
Raise your glasses high
And believe that one day
Our time will come

Our time will come (4x)
