

Last Man Standing

Fade

Rage awakens
Soul is taken
Feel my blood start to boil
Send one hundred men against me and you know I'll cut them down
All my failures
Every shattered dream
But the last man standing I know must be me
And the king will be born
This is a war where only the strong will survive

I'll lead the way
Under the revolution sky
I'll lead the way
The revolution's beginning tonight

Dawn is breaking
Darkness fading
Is this our final day?
Gaze into the enemy again knowing the price at stake
One last chance to claim a victory
So the last man standing I know must be me
For the kings to be born and win this war where only the strong will survive

I'll lead the way
Under the revolution sky
I'll lead the way
The revolution's beginning tonight
So rise with me

Destruction of the fear inside
Reaction from the taste of blood
Disruption
Destruction of the pain inside

Distraction to the fear inside
Reaction from the taste of blood
Disruption
Destruction of the pain inside

Frustration flowing through my blood
Temptation is telling me to give up
Disruption
Destruction of the pain inside
Destruction of the fear inside
Reaction from the taste of blood
Disruption
Destruction of the pain inside
