

So Far Gone

Fade

I feel the nothingness of the truth inside cause nothing ever seems like It's ever gonna feel real

All of the trails of tears
And all the traits of fears
I'm tied down in the past that darkens the horizon
But one day I will live now

So far gone
I'm here to live the moment
Follow your heart
I'm here to leave a comment

So far gone
Before it's too late to be free, to be free

Broken promises of the Shattered dreams that never made it
I'm feeling like there is nothing here now

Don't want to look back at What I've turned down within Tomorrow is the end of all endings
So let me try one more

So far gone
I'm here to live the moment
Follow your heart
I'm here to leave a comment

So far gone
Before it's too late to be free, to be free

Believe what you see in your heart
No one can stop you from the truth you see inside

So far gone
I'm here to live my moment
Don't be afraid
I'm here to grasp this moment

Time will come
When you can see beyond the past and see a whole new day

So far gone
I'm here to live the moment
Follow your heart
I'm here to leave a comment

So far gone
Before it's too late to be free, to be free
