

Another Dead Boy

Faderhead

Daily grind and lack of octane
How long will this last?
Back's all loaded, gears are jammed again
This life is gone too fast
There's nothing at the end of day but stare
Into a dark void
Nothing in your soul that's left to bare
Another dead boy

I would burn if I had a chance
Please lord have mercy
I would burn if I had a chance
That's when I rise
I would burn if I had a chance
Please lord have mercy
I would burn if I had a chance
Another dead boy

Bent and broken bodies on the floor
No exit sign ahead
Grit your teeth and try to push some more
And rip yourself to shreds
Nothing in this life is worth a dare
Cause everything's destroyed
Nothing in this world for you to care
