

I don't know...I don't know...

Black dogs barking at the door downstairs
Steamy, boiled up water permeates the air
Fridge magnets mispronouncing foreign words
Memories that hurt...

Ripped up pillows symbolize who owns the room
Walls unfinished, lost the artist's touch
Every little thing we did just came too soon
I'm missing you so much...

Play with me and you get burned for sure
So many days of feeling insecure

Exit ghost, dim the lights down low
Will we find what's deep inside? I don't know
Exit ghost, I can see your soul...
Isolated, contemplated
Will we still remain? I don't know...

Red-crested cranes engraved on your chest
I tried to fit into your heart...uninvited guest
Letting true love run right through my fingertips
Conversations intimate

Fall asleep next to the lit-up screens
A thousand miles away, one pillow shared
Hellfire never ever felt so sweet
Now all I am is scared

Play with fire, one gets burned for sure
All these hours feeling insecure

Exit ghost, dim the lights down low
Will we find what's deep inside? I don't know
Exit ghost, I can see your soul...
Forgive me that we've failed
Will we still remain? I don't know...

Exit ghost, dim the lights down low
Will we find what's deep inside? I don't know
Exit ghost, I can see your soul...
Isolated, contemplated
Will we still remain? I don't know...

I still hope... I don't know...
I still hope...
