

Silent Every Day

Faderhead

The time is now
The world divides to "wrong" and "right"
Thorns in my mind
Please keep this heart unbroken
The time has come
When deep inside I know it's right
I can't deny
Can't keep this heart unbroken

And you're still silent every day

The time is now
My soul burned down to ashes
I don't know how
Please keep this heart unbroken
The time has come
When all that was can not be saved
From two to one
Can't keep this heart unbroken
