

Still Missing

Faderhead

Sometimes I did
But now I don't
All lights are out
And no one's home
Sometimes I wonder
What's become?
Some days are white
Some days are gone
Some days just wiped away

Everytime I try and open my heart
I'll be searching for the part still missing
Rain and sun may form a colorful arc
I'll be hiding cause it's hard still missing you

If every word you said
Came true
My world would rise
And be renewed
Your words connect
Until this day
Some days my heart
Feels cast away
Days just cast away
