

A Loophole in Limbo

Fair to Midland

I smell a rat and just in case
I'll set up traps and you're the bait, surprise
Surprise
If curiosity kills cats, we'd better
We'd better teach the cat to fight back

I'm waiting for you
I don't know why, when you always take your time
Into the middle we go
Let's see you try to kill me

Oh, I fell to the floor
Your eyes on mine

The little man straddles the fence
He never loses, never wins with confidence
Then more power to him
He doesn't need a telescope
To figure out he's jumping rope, hand over fist

I'm waiting for you
I don't know why, when you always take your time
Into the middle we go
Let's see you try to kill me

Oh, I fell to the floor
Your eyes on mine

I'm waiting for you
I don't know why, when you always take your time
Into the middle we go
Let's see you try

I'm waiting for you
I don't know why, when you always take your time
Into the middle we go
Let's see you try to kill me
