

Broken By A Breeze

Fairground Attraction

Don't cry, darling, please
We've seen worse days than these
And a love that bore a storm
Won't be broken by a breeze
Look around and you'll see
The friend you have in me
And the love that bore a storm
Won't be broken by a breeze
Words are such a clumsy way
For saying something that's hard to say
So but this talk out of your head
And listen to your heart instead
And make a smile for me
If you can laugh then you're free
And a love that bore a storm
Won't be broken by a breeze
Words are such a clumsy way
For saying something that's hard to say
So put this talk out of your head
And listen to your heart instead
And don't cry, don't cry
And a love that bore a storm
Won't be broken by a breeze
Don't cry, don't cry