

John My Son

Fairport Convention

John, my son, don't join the Navy, there's no good in it, I know

Plant your seeds on solid ground and watch your harvest grow

John, my son, don't join the Navy, that's clay that's underneath your skin

John, my son, don't join the Navy, don't go leaving your kith and kin