

A Dark Omen

Fairyland

Death followed his path when first he came the coldness of his mind was that of steel desease was his fortune, chaos his name his words disillusions, for blood he came

The world was in terror, plague and chaos reigned but in this darkness was a light

In the name of innocence, in the name of holly light for the glory of the ancient gods, and for freedom we will fight

Eager for revenge, (the) traveller is back defeated once before, but stronger now
The fight may be harder, blood must be shared But hope is on our side, we'll fight again

To save our kingdom, in the name of light we'll fight untill the end of time

In the name of innocence, in the name of holly light
for the glory of the ancient gods, and for freedom we
will fight

Somewhere above, a kingdom in the clouds the wisdom of elders guide our swords Together as one, the light is on our side the holly fire burning in our hearts