A Forest Of Flames

Fairytale Abuse

Shown in fear, the heaven is so called near The black engulfed is here! ...and white, his eyes are made of light! Evil spread tonight! His strong and blatant steel Will tell you what you feel! Descent into his arms His Ghouls will give you warmth!

I am thy, a man in mystery In a world of tragedy My eyes are burning white In show a bright delight My strong and blatant steel Will tell you what you feel Descent into my arms My ghouls will give you warmth

"The face that I saw was utmost terrified Dreams of which I thought never was believed Contained in my soul but buried so deep Lastly evil confirmed: it was.... No... sleep"

May I forever rest in a forest of flames

Shown in fear, the heaven is so called near The black engulfed is here! ...and white, his eyes are made of light! Evil spread tonight! His strong and blatant steel Will tell you what you feel! Descent into his arms his Ghouls will give you warmth!
