

Jealous

Faith Evans

Now let me be real with you.
About my feeling's.
The way that i deal with you.
I just can't conceal it.
I don't really mind all your female friends and all.
Just know that i'm pssessive,
And aggressive when it comes to you.

Im so jealous
I can't help it i'm not the type who cares to share because im selfish.
Im so jealous i cant control it
Aint no need to lie about it cause i know it.

Now don't you get it confused cause im not trippin' and i know
thers no substitute
For what im givin'
But all the super friendly extra lovey dovey hugs and greetings
Make me feel like you might be out there cheating.

Every now and then i might check you caller I.D.
Just to see who's callin' other than me
Every other girl i know does the same thing too.
But they dont even say that they do Oh.

Im so jealous
I can't help it
Im not the type that cares to share because im selfish.
Im so jealous i can't control it
Aint no need to lie about it cause i know it.

(I got to be real with you i might check your pager to)
