So in future lifetimes It's a certainty That we'll again Fit together perfectly

So in in future lifetimes It's a certainty That we'll again Fit together perfectly

You're the sun to me

I stumbled into you
Accidentally
And yet
Feels as though you were
Sent to me...
That we were meant to be
Together and grow with
Each other
Through the centuries

If my body was your mirror You'd be able to see Exactly What it is about you That I'm addicted to Helplessly you distract me Like a mountain view of Rivers crashing into the sea Strangely You all seem familiar to me Would so, love tie us Together through eternity So in future lifetimes It's a certainty We will again Fit together perfectly

You're the sun to me You're the sun to me

So in future lifetimes It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectly

You're the sun to me You're the sun to me

If my body was your mirror You'd be able to see

Exactly
What it is about you
That makes me shiver
You give me a soul fever
And I achieve
A new level of grace

So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly

You're the sun to me You're the sun to me

We do it so fervently We do it so fervently With your urgency We do it so fervently

You're the sun to me You're the sun to me You're the sun to me You're the sun to me

You're the sun to me You're the sun to me You're the sun to me You're the sun to me
