The Man in You

Faithless

Although I don't really know how to handle you I will have nobody kicking no sand in your face Not even a trace of bland in you Teenage and it's a trouble understanding you

You got plenty of energy and stamina
Forgot all the little tricks I tried to cram in you
There's a bit of, 'I don't give a damn' in you, ha
And that's your old man in you

Stand in your way, never or ever abandon ya And on the day people say what they can't stand in ya Don't let your ego get out of hand on ya It ain't a good look when crook-kharma land on ya

Balance yourself, bring out the Zinedine Zidane in you The I will and I can in you Execute the grand plan in you I'm your daddy and happy to see the man in you

Might know too much but I'm no soft touch
Brought you up, to recognize lies as such
I need no crutch, child hood was arduous
And if there is a God I'm sure He would pardon us
Must be working hard in us, not to harden us

10, that you really wanna be 20, exactly what you see is on telly
11, you can't tell him anything
That he don't know already

12, they get together steady
Explore the 1st keeping up with the many 13, none of them are ready
Living on old raised broke not a penny

14, baby in the belly She's all done a runner another no daddy 15, Nanny and she loves it dearly Head strong proving all along but wary

16, scale we were quite contrary This is how the garden grows This is how the garden grows

Children, you still own the power
To turn this into your finest hour
Now a young ma mum that mistake
Can make a contribution why don't we wait and see

Give back the mothers their dignity
And the fathers who roam free a lesson in humility
This society needs to learn empathy

It happened to you, it could happen to me It happened to you, it could happen to me It happened to you, it could happen to me

It happened to you, it could happen to me

Birds and bees without flowers Girls be strong, boys don't cower Stand by your seat, scream and shower Oh, how the sweet can turn sour
