

be here lately

Faktion

She said "I can't be here lately
I still miss you baby"
Then walks away

I guess if she's not the one
I'll just go have some fun
At least for today

And it breaks my heart
To see you start to fade away
To fade away
And we can't go back
I won't relax
There's nothing to save anyway

They say time will ease your mind
It'll open up your eyes
Not today

Mama said "go have some fun, son
'Cause she's not the one, son
Walk away"

And it breaks my heart
To see you start to fade away
To fade away
And we can't go back
And I won't relax
There's nothing to save anyway
There's nothing left save

Yeah

And it breaks my heart
To see you start to fade away
And we can't go back
And I won't relax
There's nothing to save

You know I can't be here lately
I don't miss you baby
So I walk away
