

Forgive Me

Faktion

Concentrating on my knees
Cause they're no help to me
I find myself with simple questions
And simple needs
Bleeding forces gather me
Undo my weakness and appease
My sadness and guilt
Of what was done for me

I'll know what you are
The light in the dark
And I'll see what you are
Forgive me
And I'll take what you are
Over again
I'll need nothing more
Take me
Many voices speak
Many times I am weak
Many things escape
It's part of me
Many chances that I take
To kill you again
It should've been me
And everyone
Take me
See who you are
Know who you are
See who you are
Take me
Take me
Forgive me
