

Bad Girls Club

Falling in Reverse

I met a girl and I really thought she liked me
I truly thought that I had met the one
It was a fail to no avail
I'm just another victim of the bad girl's club

She's like a witch, casting spells hypnotizing
She made me drink a potion just to fall in love
She got me drunk, tipsy off her love
I'm just another victim of the bad girl's club!

(hey)

She's always blowing up my phone
I really wish that she'd leave me alone
I got to change my number, hard for me to slumber
when she's outside my home

She called the cops and made it seem like I was mean She's not your average lady,
she's fuckin' crazy,
spelled C-U-N-T (bitch)

And after all
the rise and fall
you're not worth my time

I'm c-c-calling it quits,
this time
You're playing games
and all we do is fight.
It's getting late so
olly-olly-olly oxen free,
all the bad girls come chill with me
Love's a drug that got me on the run
I'm just another victim of the bad girl's club

I'm always paranoid that she's somehow watching me Follows me on Twitter, asking if I miss her (hashtag) set me free

She googles my name
just to keep some tabs on me
She's not your average lady
Someone help me, please

I'm c-c-calling it quits
this time

Alright, alright settle down, settle down
I need all my bad girls in the house tonight to help me do a cheer
It goes
one, two, three, four

Hey sexy boy I got you wrapped around my finger L-O-V-E really doesn't mean much Your love is like a drug but it is not enough
Give me a B-A-D, we're the bad girl's club
