

Stay Away

Falling in Reverse

I've watched my life flash right
Before my eyes just one too many times
I've graced the devil's lips
Her kiss of death but somehow I alive
I take another pill, so I won't feel the pain
This mess I made, I celebrated on the day
I'm dying

Can't get away
Show me the truth, I'm sick of the lies
Why must we pretend?
I'm repeating this over and over again

Stay away
This is your last warning
I am not the same
Please, do not adore me
It's not your fault, what have I done?
Who can I trust?
I don't belong here
And I have lost my way again
Stay away from me

I have this mindset
That it's me against the world since I was born
Don't want your company, don't fuck with me
Can't say I did not warn
I've got my back on the wall
There ain't no person to call
And get back up again
The only thing that I know
I do it on my own
How it's always, how it's always been

Stay away
This is your last warning
I am not the same
Please, do not adore me
It's not your fault, what have I done?
Who can I trust?
I don't belong here
And I have lost my way again
Stay away from me

Stay, stay, stay away
This is true, I'm telling you just
Stay, stay, stay away
Don't misconstrue, I'm warning you

Stay away
This is your last warning
I am not the same
Please, do not adore me
It's not your fault, what have I done?
Who can I trust?
I don't belong here
And I have lost my way again

Stay away from me

Just stay away from me
Stay away from me
