Drago or the Dragons

This mathematic sunset Sights a neck to sink her teeth into again A late aesthetic exit is impossible But not from rafter sins

I'm just alive, she's just a fake Now poison's running through the seams The numbers say it, flash up the screen And from crescendo cuts the knee

I'm just alive, she's just a fake Now poison's running through the seams The numbers say it, flash up the screen And from crescendo cuts the knee

Gravity will retrace every step Gravity will retrace every step

One cholera outbreak, the blinds are pulled The shades are drawn here once again To drop Murexia in lakes Too much so drop the glass and shatter then it blends

I'm just alive, she's just a fake Now poison's running through the seams The numbers say it, flash up the screen And from crescendo cuts the knee

Gravity will retrace every step Gravity will retrace every step

Gravity will retrace every step Gravity will retrace every step

Gravity will retrace every step Gravity will retrace every step Falling Up
