

Flights

Falling Up

They search, they light
This place, a face of the fearless
To wait the night
It's calm but you're starting to hear this
It moves so fast, stops hearts but holding on faster
Come back, like that, and you know that

You will find
That I'm everywhere you go
And I'm all the places you will not be
You will find
That I'm everywhere you go
And I'm all the things that you want to be

It leaves this light
This sparkle's broken inside you
I swear it hides
This siren's moving its way through
This race we hear
The fall of the wind and the whispers
The take so clear and you know that

You will find
That I'm everywhere you go
And I'm all the places you will not be
You will find
That I'm everywhere you go
And I'm all the things that you want to be

Constantly moving your heart is just wasting away
Endlessly waiting this life is just slipping away

(2x) You will find
That I'm everywhere you go
And I'm all the places you will not be
You will find
That I'm everywhere you go
And I'm all the things that you want to be
