Searchlights

It's like a breath before the dive It's like the truth after a lie This flight is taking over Searchlights in every corner Like I love you when you're gone Escaping in the dawn I swear we'll flood your city No choice it's what you're getting

If you want to breathe will you just let me know If you want it, then you'll see it, let me know Wash away the tears, will you just let me know Need to see it, then you'll want it, let me know

The secrets in the wind The rumors now begin You want to hear the silence You want the quiet sirens His blood is like the break The love you will not take I swear we'll flood your city No choice it's what you're getting

If you want to breathe will you just let me know If you want it, then you'll see it, let me know Wash away the tears, will you just let me know Need to see it, then you'll want it, let me know

No one can breathe, no one can see They are asleep, they will be seen

Asleep Breakaway the voice is calling Wake up you're asleep and falling Not to late to open up your heart He will heal the shattered hopes And fly away the broken souls It's not too late to find out who you are

If you want to breathe will you just let me know If you want it, then you'll see it, let me know Wash away the tears, will you just let me know Need to see it, then you'll want it, let me know

Falling Up
