

Symmetry

Falling Up

Stop this, you're never going to find it
When you complicate, you are left behind but Longing, steals away the night
And steps away from eyes that are always searching
This time, you can feel his voice
And He's never going to stop until it sinks in deeply
Falling, consecrated lies
And you're letting go with time cause you're through with keepi ng

It's so real, never gonna stop till you want it,
Want it
It's so real, never gonna stop

Cause we're moving with a symmetry
And we're crashing like the waves in the sea
And we're moving to your heart this time
Release

Crashing, feel the way we move
Open up your eyes to the things around you
Haunting, take away the tears
Cause you know that your heart is so close to Beating
This time, you can feel his voice
And He's never gonna stop until it sinks in deeply
Falling, consecrated lies
And you're letting go with time cause you're through with keepi ng

It's so real
You are, you are.
