

Carved from Stone

Fallujah

Drenched in sweat and caged in the steel
Fall from grace temptress surreal
Skin carved from stone
The lust inside her bones

A damsel so content
The child of excess
Her skin in my control
Ignited all alone

As helpless as vermin swallowed whole
The pain ignites her and every desperate lustful bone (2x)

Hold your tongue
You're mine tonight
Your flesh and blood are my prize

I'll control you if you like
Does it make you feel alive?
Does it numb the pain inside?
Does it make you feel?

I'll control you if you like
Does it make you feel alive? (2x)
