

Starting Over

Famous Last Words

It will be alright

Starting over
It will kill me
Bring me back to times we had

It's far too late
And I cannot wait any longer
And it's killing me

It's been one dark year
And you grow older, older, older
And I hope I get closer,
Wiser,
And stronger,

But I'll see you soon
One day you will find
You were always on my mind
And I think of you
I'll cross a burning bridge
And I'll always be with you

It will be alright
The pieces come together
And they form a perfect picture
I will win this fight
I'll cross the seven seas
And you'll always be with me

Baby don't cry tonight
My only sin was saying goodbye
All those times
I drove away and cried
And lied
And said I'd be alright

Baby don't cry tonight
My only sin was saying goodbye
All those times
I drove away and cried
And lied
And said I'd be alright
Alright

Heyy-ah

In my dreams
I see her face
She looks at me
That's as close as they will let me be
Just a memory
It will turn real
Eventually
I don't care what they do
'Cause nothing can stop me

Baby don't cry tonight
My only sin was saying goodbye
All those times
And lied
And said I'd be alright
Baby don't cry tonight

My only sin was saying goodbye
All those times
And lied
And said I'd be alright

Starting over
It will kill me
Bring me back to times we had
