

Fools Cry

Fancy

Once upon a time there was a love it wasn't meant to be given up forever free to shine.
Once it found a way in time and space turned our darkness into craze forever yours and mine.

Running wild
far away
sailing through the night
burning love
a star away
following the light.

Fools cry and then they turn around and sigh
for life's a lonely lie no way to lose what I found and silent rain is falling down -
whenever fools cry
whenever fools cry.

Love
a secret journey
my crusade
a sane and daring masquerade

I'm holding on to you.
Running wild
far away
sailing through the night
burning love
a star away
following the light.

Fools cry and then they turn around and sigh
for life's a lonely lie
no way to lose what I found and silent rain is falling down -
whenever fools cry
whenever fools cry.

Lifetime's another moment with you tender and wild

then a tear of a fool shatters the crystal - why do fools cry ?

Running wild
far away
sailing through the night

burning love
a star away
following the light.

Fools cry and then they turn around and sigh

whenever fools cry.
